

PLP Alumni Network

---

Presented by Sarah Sandlin and Miranda Hazelton

Our Process

---

1. Made a Facebook group called “PLP Alumni.”
2. Posted a survey in the group to figure out the best way to serve alumni.
3. Used responses to plan additions to the network.
4. Created a email domain for just PLP’s

Proposals

---

- There were many routes we wanted to take this network.

-In response to the alumnis' wants, we focused on meetups.

Reunions

---

- Alumni events could take place throughout Festival.
- Banquet at the Grand
- Pavillion/Tent on Festival Grounds
- Softball/Stickball Game
- Subsidizations/Freebies at Tribal Facilities

Meetups

---

- Alumni events could take place around district meetings.
  - After meeting, past PLPs could have a meeting with legislator.
  - Dinner in the nearby area afterwards.

Elizabeth Clift, '12

---

- Working for the Global Education office on her campus at East Central University.
- Attended a CARTA conference
- Took a trip touring businesses in Oklahoma City and the Dallas/Fort Worth area

Selena Crowley, '11

.....

-Awarded a fellowship by Columbia University as a summer researcher.

-Took a job with Vanderbilt University's Center for Research on Health Disparities as a field researcher.

-In the spring of 2013, she graduated summa cum laude from Fisk University in Nashville, Tennessee, and was awarded a fellowship from the University of California, Los Angeles to pursue graduate studies and her masters in American Indian Studies.

