Citizen Potawatomi Nation
Lottery Hunting Lease

Who Can Apply:
Any Citizen Potawatomi Nation (CPN) tribal member or spouse of CPN tribal member may enter the lottery to lease the land for hunting. Applicant must provide: Copy of CPN Tribal Membership Card or proof of marriage (copy of marriage license) and spouse’s CPN Tribal Membership Card (if applying on spousal qualification). Only 1 entry per person. Applicant must be 18 years or older.

What Does it Cost:
If selected for the hunting lease the annual payment is $25.00/acre due no later than October 1st.

What Do I Need To Know Before Applying:
- Only one application per person, entering twice will disqualify you.
- Applicant must be 18 years or older.
- Prior to taking possession of the lease property, winning applicant must provide proof of current and legal hunting license issued by the State of Oklahoma Wildlife Department.
- Anyone hunting on the property must complete the Oklahoma Hunter Safety Course or abide by the terms of the Apprentice Hunter program.
- If awarded, only lessee, spouse, and children living in the home and under the age of 18 will be allowed on the property.
- Lease year runs from Oct 1 – May 31. CPN will take possession for 2 months of the calendar year for land improvements and maintenance.
- Drawing will be held Sept 15 in the CPN Department of Real Estate Services office at 2:00 p.m.
- Lessee will be allowed to hunt all legal game species on property during the legal season dates (Duck, Deer, Turkey, Rabbit, Quail as established by the State of Oklahoma Department of Wildlife)
- Lessee must follow all Oklahoma licensing requirements (Tagging, Bag Limits, Duck Stamp requirements, animal harvest reporting, etc.)
- All animals harvested must be reported to CPN conservation Law Enforcement Officer within 24 hours of harvest.
- Portable blinds and tree stands will be permitted on the property. No permanent structures can be erected.
- Due to Property Size; bow, crossbow, muzzle loader, and shotgun are the only methods of harvest permitted. Rifle is strictly prohibited.
- Any person who has been convicted of a Felony Crime or Violent Offense will not be permitted to lease the property.
- Entries must be Postmarked no later than September 8th.
- Winning applicant will be subject to background check and Tribal membership verification.
